As part of the ongoing Urban Union Arts Strategy a fund of £3,000 has been set up for distribution. This fund, provided by Urban Union will be known as the 'Creative Community Chest' for micro projects and is established in partnership with North Edinburgh Arts and the OneCity Trust. Scottish charities and constituted groups located in the North Edinburgh Arts membership area (on the front of this leaflet) can apply for one of 10 grants of £300, to be used to deliver creative content for the local community (until the budget is exhausted).

The governance and oversight of grant distribution will be undertaken in a fair and equitable manner with monitoring arrangements, including records of activities and impacts, carried out by the office of the OneCity Trust. Application information will be shared with North Edinburgh Arts and final reports will be circulated to Urban Union.
